The New High School School Board wants another committee

A meeting is scheduled to be held tonight, in the High School Library, of the various town boards and committees that may be interested in the building of a High School, or an addition to the present building.

It has been called for by the Wilmington School Committee, with most of the invitations by telephone.

The School Committee, hopefully, wants some other board or committee to take over the function of pushing for a new High School. It says in effect that it has too many other things to do. So far there has been no enthusiastic response by any other committee.

Town Manager Sterling Morris cannot be present. He has some military duty which he must perform, that evening.

Of the other boards, no definite responses are known of at this writing. The Wilmington Planning Board felt, Tuesday night, that two of its members could attend, and it was prepared to offer more school sites, for the consideration of the School Committee.

The letter written by the School Committee reads:

From: Wilmington School Committee.
Subject: Future Direction of School Building Program.

The Wilmington School Committee in examining its role and the role of School Administrators in the area of school construction recognizes that it has the obligation to provide the educational specifications for any new construction. It is the intent of the School Committee to meet this responsibility at all times.

The role of the School Committee member is undergoing a major transition. New educational changes and such complex issues as collective bargaining are becoming added burdens with increasing demands on the Committee's time. Likewise, the role of the Superintendent of Schools is changing rapidly and will continue to do so. There are many programs that need his attention and direction. To direct an educational program for more than 5200 young people and to supervise a total staff of over 350 is an enormous and time-consuming task. The School Committee, therefore wishes to take the position that once it has established the educational specifications for any new school building these specifications will be forwarded to other appropriate committees for their action. The School Committee's major role in the building program will have been accomplished. Liaison personnel will be assigned to assist any involved committee, but the great impetus to see any school building program carried from stated need through to fruition must come from other town bodies.

The School Committee and the School Administration wish to remain helpful, and they obviously recognize that they have a vested interest in the quality and versatility of any school construction; but the responsibility of the School Committee must not be extended into the area of providing the primary leadership in "selling" any building program to the Town Meeting.

In addition to the fact that it is not the School Committee's role, we also know that neither the Committee's nor the Administrator's knowledge of building and construction exists to any degree of excellence. We must look to the municipality through its various Boards, to provide the leadership in the necessary areas of site selection, land taking, bond issues or construction if the Town is to be successful in providing much needed school facilities for our youngsters.

We would like to meet with you jointly to further elaborate our thoughts. Communication as to date, time, and location of this meeting will be by telephone to the various board chairmen. Thank you for your consideration and interest in our school buildings needs.

LACK OF ENTHUSIASM CANCELS WINTER CARNIVAL

A number of Wilmington merchants and business men who were willing to sponsor a Winter Carnival here will be getting their money back within the next few days.

The event had the backing of the Recreation Commission, and would have been a step toward creating more recreation for the residents of the town, both young and old.

Ice sculptures on the common, toboggan races at the town park, speed skating on Silver Lake, a town wide neighborhood hockey tournament and a snowman contest for the children were to be included, along with the first annual house lighting contest with a prize awarded for the most creative display of Christmas decorations.

Unfortunately it has had to be cancelled due to the lack of enthusiasm within the community. It was not possible to generate sufficient support.

Swain School Art Display in Memorial Library

Students of the Swain School are exhibiting their art work at the Memorial Library during the month of November.

The display can be seen in the children's room of the library from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Saturday and until 9 p.m. on Monday and Thursday.

Mrs. Mott, art instructor for the Swain School has chosen these works as representative of the variety of techniques the students are using.

Three dimensional works, prints, and pencil drawings are among the works displayed.

One Way to get Help

A Belmont motorist, who found himself stranded on Concord Street at 5 a.m. Tuesday morning solved the problem of how to get help. William S. Bahn went over to the Dynamics Research building and pulled the fire alarm.

The fire trucks responded, and Bahn got the help he needed. It probably cost the town a couple of hundred dollars to give that help.

Stay Out of Wilmington!

A young man, a former resident of Wilmington has been ordered by the Woburn Court to stay out of Wilmington.

Mike Slater, formerly of Wilmington, more recently of Billerica, and now with a Hudson address, was found guilty in Woburn Court yesterday of receiving stolen property. He had been arrested with stolen property in his possession from the Anderson home on Shady Lane Drive, by the Wilmington Police.

Justice Sartorelli gave him a sentence of six months in the House of Correction in Billerica, suspended for two years, and during those two years he must keep out of Wilmington.

Reportedly Slater has been doing his sleeping in the back seat of an automobile.

Marcia Road Re-Instated

Marcia Road, in North Wilmington, has returned to the good graces of the town, and is once again a road. The Planning Board, Tuesday night, took action to revoke its former rescission of the plan for the road.

As a result of the incompletion of the work on building the road, by a developer, the Planning Board, on January 7th, 1970, rejected the plan for part of it, a part with three house-lots on each side, and directly behind the Woburn Street School. The Town Meeting then adopted a complicated "Betterment Plan" which applied the money available to that portion of Marcia Road having homes. If developers wanted to build on the vacant lots they would have to provide money for the completion of the last portion of the road.

Town Engineer Arthur Harding reported on the progress, at Tuesday night's meeting. The street, he said, had been paved that day. And, with safeguards to insure that the town gets paid, the Planning Board then re-instated Marcia Road.

Both William MacKinnon and Bob Leahy, new members attending the meeting, being introduced by Town Manager Sterling Morris. They were cordially received.

Present at the meeting was Selectman James Miceli, who has attended four recent meetings because of a discussion concerning Webber Road, on which he lives, and had participated in the Planning Board discussions. He thanked the Planning Board, Tuesday night, for allowing him to participate.

The McMahon Funeral Home, which for years has been standing on a lot of land on which was also the home of the late Joseph McMahon, is being transferred, by plan, to a lot of land having the old McMahon home on it. The presumption by one member of the Planning Board, who viewed the plan, before voting, is that there may be a sale in the future of the home of the late Mr. McMahon.

Walker Mothers Learning Festival

Members of the Walker School Mothers Club will sponsor a Learning Festival on December 8th, between the hours of 7 and 10 p.m. Parents will have the opportunity to browse and purchase educational material at popular prices. It should be a convenient, easy and pleasant way to provide children with meaningful learning materials. Wonderful for gifts.

There will be on display in the lunchroom of the school, magnifiers, simple science experiments, dinosaurs, magnets and motors, spelling games, educational handicrafts and many other materials representing all areas of interest to children.

The event will not only help arouse student interest in learning, but will also contribute to a worthwhile project. The school will profit from all sales, and the proceeds will be used for library books.

The public is cordially invited

Shakespeare is Coming!

The Senior Class of Wilmington High School is reaching back to the classical antiquities of the English language for its senior play, this year.

Selected for the play, or as someone has expressed it, for their "vehicle" is Shakespeare - "A Midsummer Night's Dream" - one of Shakespeare's more ethereal plays. It is to be performed next week, starting Thursday, through Saturday, in the Herbert C. Barrows Auditorium. This is the first time, it is believed that Wilmington High School has tried Shakespeare in a quarter of a century.

Miss Laura M. Marland, retired head of the English Department, for whom the School Library is named, at one time presented Shakespeare plays to the public, through the High School classes.

Miss Carol Chipman, a teacher in Wilmington High, is the lady who inspired the Senior Class to take up Shakespeare. Miss Chipman is active in the Quannapowitt Players, of Reading, and has appeared in a production of A Midsummer Night's Dream, in New Hampshire, during the past summer.

Mike Harrington will have the line of "What Fools these Mortals Be". He is to play Puck. David O'Rourke, an expansionist minded Senior, has a wonderful time too. He is Lysander, and it will be he who will say "The Course of True Love never did Run Smooth" - David feels that the High School seniors are having an exhausting time, verifying that fact, in the play.

The costumes are being prepared by Peggy McNamara and a group of friends, all High School girls, and Johnny Bognore and Bobby Bush, have been preparing the scenery.

out personalities. All articles submitted must be signed and dated by the author. The deadline for submission will be the twentieth of each month.

Each board, commission, committee and department is being requested to submit special articles, calendar events, announcements and new appointments, together with answers to readers questions.

An approved copy of minutes of meetings, and or a monthly report will also be featured from time to time.

Wildcats win 23-0

The varsity topped visiting No. Reading, 23-0 in a very sluggish performance last Saturday afternoon. Playing at home before a small gathering of devoted fans the Wildcats scored on the opening play of the game and it looked like a rout.

Artie Bibeau took the opening kickoff on his own twelve yard line and broke right up the middle and down field for an exciting 88 yard touchdown run. Jack Stygles' placement boot hit the left upright and the Wildcats led, 6-0.

In the second period the varsity scored their second td on a seven yard run by quarterback Bob Conlin. The four play drive started at the Hornet's nine following Jack Holloway's block of a No. Reading punt, at the 19 with Mike Rounds recovering at the 9.

The point after kick was true and at 3:43 of the period the home towners were on top, 13-0.

On the ensuing series of downs the Hornets were unable to move the ball after taking over at their twenty. Some fine defensive work by Steve Holloway, Rounds, Mike Severin and Paul Olson forced the No. Reading quarterback in throwing the ball away.

Taking over in good field position, Coach Bellissimo's eleven moved for their final td of the game. Bibeau capped a seven play march with an eight yard sweep at 7:26. Key plays in the march were a pass interference call against the Hornets at the 28; a nine yard pass and run play Conlin to Bibeau; and a 26 yard scamper by Conlin on a keeper around right end. Style's point after kick went wide to the right and the varsity went off at half time with a 19-0 lead.

Midway into the third stanza the Wildcats moved from their own 29 on the Hornets 40 before a holding penalty moved them back into their own territory thus forcing a punting situation. Mark Jepsen's punt carried to the Hornets nine and three plays later Steve Holloway tackled Fred Rex of No. Reading in the end zone for a safety and a 21-0 Wildcat lead.

On the free kick the varsity took over at their 34 and they marched down to the 15 before a fumble moved them back three yards and on a fourth and five from the eighteen Conlin's 3 yard pass to Bibeau was not enough for the first down.

Three running plays moved the Hornets back to their two yard line where on a fourth and 23 punting situation a bad snap from center went over the punters head and out of the end zone for an automatic safety putting the Wildcats on top, 23-0.

At 1:27 of the final frame the second offensive unit took over for the varsity and the reserves controlled the ball for some five minutes moving the pigskin down to the Hornets six before their blocking broke down and a pair of large losses forced the Wildcats to give up the ball.

Following Doug Stewart's punt the Hornets put together their best offensive drive of the day against the second defensive unit, marching to midfield following the Hornets quarterback to fumble and Bob Reed recovered at the No. Reading 39.

The varsity hosts Billerica in their final home appearance of the season this Saturday. Kick off for the key MVC encounter is listed for 1:30 p.m.

Coach Ayward's jayvee eleven extended their unbeaten streak to six on Monday with a 14-0 win over the No. Reading junior varsity. Paul Fitch, a sixty yard run, and Steve Coursey, three yard keeper, registered the two td's while a pass Coursey to Ray Noel accounted for the other points on a two point conversion following the second td. Next Monday the upstart jv's wrap up their season with a road encounter at Billerica.

Meanwhile, the freshmen completed a sweep of the Hornets in their football meetings this season, by whipping the No. Reading frosh, 8-0. A 20 yard pass from Carl Butler to Jack Dawson on a halfback option provided Coach Muir's boys with the margin of victory. Bob Bavota ran successfully for the two point conversion to complete the scoring. Tomorrow the freshmen travel to Billerica with hopes of improving upon their 3-3-1 record.

SNOWBIRD BASKETBALL FESTIVAL IN DECEMBER

The Recreation Department will sponsor the Snowbird Basketball Festival for adult male teams in December. The entry fee for the single elimination tournament is $25 per team.

Rosters of teams are limited to eight (8) players. The players must be Wilmington residents, or members or employees of the team sponsor. Entry fees and rosters, complete with names, addresses and phone numbers of the team members, including coaches, should be sent to the Recreation Department at the Town Hall.

Checks should be made out to the Snowbird Basketball Festival. Entries close on Monday, November 29th. Tentative dates for the tournament are December 8th, 9th, 15th and 16th.

ARTIE BIBEAU (dark shirt, No. 31) streaks towards the Hornet's goal line, running back the opening kickoff of last Saturday's triumph over North Reading.

Cross Country Jayvees Unbeaten

UNDEFEATED: Freshman Doug Spring pictured last week prior to the Conference J.V. Meet, which he won easily to remain unbeaten.

CAPTAIN RICK KEANE: Of the Varsity Cross Country Team, pictured prior to running his final race for the Wildcats on the outdoor course.

On Wednesday, October 27th, Wilmington hosted the MVC meet as the unbeaten Wildcat jayvee squad went up against the rest of the league. Meanwhile the varsity put their hopes on senior Captain Rick Keane.

The result was a resounding victory for the junior varsity runners. The younger Wildcats completely outclassed the rest of the teams. Freshman Doug Spring maintained his unbeaten streak finishing first to set a new school and course record. Third, fourth and fifth places also went to Wildcats: Carl Abel, Mark Blaisdell and Ian MacInnis.

The varsity runners put forth a strong effort, but just could not match the power of the other teams. When the race was over, the varsity had finished 7th among eight schools. The first Wildcat across the line was Captain Rick Keane with a good time of 14:41. In his final meet Rick continued to show excellent individual effort.

No Check Hockey Blues in First Place

The Blues moved into undisputed possession of first place of the Wilmington Adult Hockey League Monday night with a 5-3 win over the Jets to highlight play in the no-check league.

A week ago tonight the Blues ripped the Flyers, 11-2 behind the goal scoring of Pete Emery (3) and Jim Cushing (2) and the Jets scored three first period goals enroute to a 5-2 triumph over Dussault's Aces.

In the Blues third straight seasonal win on Monday evening, Jim Newhouse's sextet came from a 2-1 deficit scoring four third period goals to remain on top of the league. Pete Emery led the winners with his second hat trick of the young season.

Meanwhile the upstart Aces won their initial game, 5-1 over the Flyers, behind a two goal outburst by Jim Jillette. Tonight at the Youth Ice Arena the Jets skate against the Flyers in the 11:15 p.m. opener, while in the nite cap the Blues battle the Aces. And next Monday the Aces will tangle with the Jets and the Blues faceoff against the Flyers.

Flag Football

The Miceli Club edged Rocco's, 25-21 last Thursday to highlight the final twin bill of the Men's Division. In the other contest, Sweetheart ripped Volkswagen, 51-19 behind the running of Bob Doogan and Carl Roland, each of whom scored a pair of td's in leading the Plastic team to its second win.

Tonight at 7:30 p.m., an all-star aggregation will battle its counterparts from Woburn at Town Park to put the finishing touches on the men's loop.

The boy's set is in a turmoil following Tuesday night's three games. The Giants lost their initial game of the season allowing the Cowboys to tie them for the top spot, while the Bombers and Chargers are deadlocked for third, 1 1/2 games back of the leaders.

In the opener the Cowboys extended their unbeaten skein to six with a 32-7 triumph over the slipping Bombers. John Smith and Mickey Grant each registered a td to lead the upstart Cowboys. Joe Ferraguto scooted the lone Bomber td late in the game to avert a shut out.

The Chargers moved into third place with their upset win over the Giants, 16-6. Mike Micalizzi and Brian Tower scored a td each in leading the winners, while Vin McCoy provided the Giants with their only points. In the third game of the nite, the Browns shut out the cellar dwelling Packers, 7-0 with Dave Aberle's first half td providing the margin of victory.

Next Tuesday the Giants battle the Packers at 6 p.m., followed by the Browns-Cowboys and Bombers-Chargers encounters at Town Park.

Dear Captain Neilson:

Last Sunday afternoon a task which has been "hanging fire" in Wilmington for nearly thirty years was finally completed when Rusty Butterworth unveiled his brother's (William E.) memorial plaque at the intersection of Federal and Concord Streets.

Rep. Fred F. Cain was there. Town Manager Sterling Morris was there. Four of our Selectmen were there. The usual "old stalwart" members of our veteran's organizations were there. A large out-of-town newspaper was there, but the Town Crier was not in evidence. Miss the boat again Captain?

Thirty years advance notice should give anyone time enough to prepare. Or to forget.

Judy Pierce

Believe it or not - there was a notice on the front page of last week's TC. Your editor went down at 11:50, hung around for nearly twenty minutes, and then decided it had been called off on account of the rain, and went home.

He took quite a kidding at the Selectmen's meeting Monday nite.

Dear Larz:

My family and I had the pleasure of being Wilmington residents for only a year and a half, but in that time, we had the opportunity to savor the warmth and friendliness of the wonderful people there. Although originally from New York State, we moved to Wilmington from California. Our friends there felt very sorry for us having to move in with "those cold New Englanders". We never have been more warmly welcomed into a neighborhood as we were in Wilmington. I wrote to our friends in California to assure them the only thing cold about New England was the weather. The people are the warmest you'll find anywhere.

In our year and a half, I made many friends. Many of my friends were teenagers (and younger) and I want the people (adults) to know they have a great generation coming along. The teens in Wilmington are not bad kids. On the contrary: they're great! If most of us adults would look into the person instead of the length of their hair and the clothes they wear, we'd find very warm, loving and beautiful young people.

Wilmington is a great place for adults, but really offers very little to the young people. There are dances during the school year, but nothing during the summer when they really need something. My home was always open to the kids, from ages 4 to 16 and my house was always full of joy and excitement and delicious confusion of the young people. These kids who are called many things by "the establishment" pooled their hard earned money, time and effort in throwing a surprise going-away party for me. It was a great party and a beautiful remembrance for me to take with me away from Wilmington. They also presented me with gifts which I'll always cherish, because of the spirit in which they were given. These kids are North Wilmington kids. I love each of them and hope more adults will take the time and effort to get to know some of these kids. They're growing up to a very difficult world but I know "my North Wilmington Kids" can and will be able to handle their responsibilities when the time comes for them to take responsible positions in life.

Please, before you lose the chance to know and love our youth, take the time to listen and talk with them. They're not all "long-haired freaky people". They want to do for others. Give and you shall receive. Love and understanding will be paid back more than a thousandfold.

Although, as I mentioned before, we are not natives of Wilmington or Massachusetts, it was home to us. We hated to leave but had no choice. We miss your town and the people in it so very much. Count your blessings and be proud of your town. Thank you all for being such warm and wonderful people.

Sincerely,

Joan V. Karpf

Dear Larz:

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 136, would greatly appreciate any information anyone in the Town of Wilmington would have as to the whereabouts of its Auxiliary Flag. For some reason, unbeknownst to the members, it has disappeared from its pole. We have checked with all the members to see if by chance one of them decided to clean the flag or to have it repaired in one way or another, but they were just as surprised as the people who went to get it for the parade on Sunday, and found a bare flagpole.

If someone or some group wanted to take the flag for "Kicks" all I have to say is that you have had them, now you can return the flag. It is of no earthly use to anyone but the Auxiliary, and would cost us in the vicinity of $200.00 to replace. We would appreciate its return.

Patricia A. MacFeeley, Pres.
American Legion Aux. Unit 136
Wilmington, Mass.

Dear Captain Neilson:

Did you get your wrist slapped last week, or is there some more adult reason why that sizeable Wilmington Board of Health advertisement appeared in an out-of-town newspaper?

Are your prices so exorbitant that our Board of Health cannot afford to pay them? Other town bodies including the Board of Appeals, the Selectmen, the Superintendent of Public Buildings, the Town Clerk, seem to have little trouble scraping up your fees.

The writer is in firm agreement with TM Morris when he strongly recommends that Town department heads purchase their goods and services locally whenever feasible. Why shouldn't our tax dollars be spent among the local businesses who are also paying taxes to the community?

There is probably no legal breach involved with the placing of a Town advertisement in an out-of-town paper, but there would certainly seem to be an ethical one!!

Since the writer is, no doubt going to pay for a small portion of that advertisement, she would like to know, Captain. Why did it go to an out-of-town publication?

Judy Pierce

Perhaps you should ask the Chairman of the Board of Health.

Did Someone Steal Rep. Fred Cain's Tape Recorder?

Did someone steal Rep. Fred F. Cain's Tape Recorder at his birthday party, last Friday?

Or is it just a big joke, and one of these days he will again be presented with his recorder? No one knows - at least no one is talking.

And it can be reported that among the guests at the head table were the State Director of Public Safety, Gen. McLaughlin, and District Attorney Droney of Middlesex County.

There were over 1000 guests at that party, in the Diplomat, in Saugus. Cain was presented with the recorder a present from the secretaries of the Ways & Means Committee of the House of Representatives.

The box was empty, at the time of presentation. It was explained that the tape recorder was being used, to record all that was happening at the party - all the nice speeches, and all that was going on.

The tape recorder was to be seen, after the talks and the fun had been completed. But when it came time to go home - No Tape Recorder!

Fred Cain hopes it's a joke.

Hunting the Oyster Mushroom

Years ago there was a lot of fun, in addition to some good eating, in the hunting of the Oyster Mushroom. Today it is a thing of the past - or almost so - especially here in Wilmington.

The Oyster Mushroom grows on elm trees, and sometimes on other trees too, but this rarely. The writer has picked some off maple trees, on Burlington Avenue, and has heard of them growing on conifers.

Even years ago, when there were a lot of elm trees around, the hunting of the Oyster Mushroom was not easy. They always seemed to grow out of a limb which was forty or fifty feet up in the air - a white, heavy parasol, so delectable - and so far away. If a person kept his eyes open he could sometimes find the Oyster Mushroom growing at nearly eye level, and even then he had to be lucky, for someone else would find them first.

The big treasure was an elm tree that had died, and fallen into the brush somewhere. A person who knew of such a treasure wouldn't tell his friends. He would keep it a secret, and every fall for several years there would be anywhere from a couple of pounds to a couple of dozen pounds of Oyster Mushrooms to be picked - and fried, with bacon and onions, and maybe

The spores drop from the mushroom during one of its stages of life, and are blown to other sites by the wind, where, hopefully, they propagate more mushrooms.

The Oyster Mushroom is one that grows from live trees, as well as dead trees, and it is popularly supposed that it kills the tree on which it grows. Such is not the case. There were oyster mushrooms more than twenty years ago on the elm tree at Nichols Corner, right by the Congregational Parsonage, and that tree lived on for many years - finally succumbing to the Dutch Elm Blight.

It is the Dutch Elm Blight which makes the Oyster Mushroom rare today. In northern New Hampshire, where the Tree Departments do not cut down a tree just because it is dead, there are many Oyster Mushrooms to be picked. Here in Wilmington - well, Tree Warden Tommy Sullivan and his gang are just too efficient. They cut down the tree as soon as it is dead, and there is nothing left for Ostreatus Pleurotus.

But Tommy Hasn't got them all. There are a few dead elm trees, hidden here and there - and if a person knows when to look (the day after a good rainstorm, for instance) there are still Oyster Mushrooms on which to feast.

tomatoes, for a delicious meal. The Oyster Mushroom gets its name from the color of the meat, which very closely resembles the color of the oyster - and not from its taste. It generally weighs something under a pound, but there are many which weigh much more. A few years ago the writer picked one from an elm tree on Woburn Street that weighed 36 pounds - it was close to the home of Mrs. Gertrude Allgrove.

Technically the Oyster Mushroom is known as Pleurotus Ostreatus, and there are a couple of varieties, one with white spores and one with lilac colored spores.

Wilmington Sidewalks

by Anne Linehan

A year ago this month a group of irate citizens of Wilmington were up in arms about the dangers of their children walking to school without the necessary "safety" precautions being taken by the town...mainly the lack of adequate sidewalks approaching the schools.

At the town meeting in March of this year these same concerned citizens came out and voted for acceptance of a $50,000 article for sidewalk construction. But they did more than that...they did not just sit back and see what would happen next. Almost daily individual Selectmen and the Town Manager and Engineer received calls inquiring about the latest action on the sidewalk construction.

The fruits of their labors and dedicated follow-up paid off in a most positive way this month. The Wilmington Highway Department has completed the construction of sidewalks from Park St. to Sheridan Rd., which is the northern end of Woburn St.

Bob Palmer, Highway Superintendent says that the Highway Department will definitely have completed both the Woburn St. areas and Shawsheen Ave. from Moore St. to Lake St. and Nichols St. to Lake St. in the opposite direction, plus the benefit of construction of badly needed drainage for that section of Route 129.

The flack about trees being cut down was thick and heavy and the Board of Selectmen realize there should have been more concern about this. As Selectman James Banda put it, "it's a little like closing the barn door after the horses are out...but we will replace trees where ever possible. We realize that you can't replace a 100 year old ash tree, but in most instances it was necessary to fell some of these beautiful land marks."

He added that in future sidewalk construction, Tommy Sullivan, Wilmington Tree Warden will be consulted before any trees are cut at the direction of the Town Engineer or Highway Department. The Boutwell School area is scheduled for completion and entails straightening out the road prior to sidewalk construction. The Highway Department has some blasting of rock to do.

Why is the Highway Department doing this work when bids went out?...Simply because there were three bids and the lowest was for $69,167.75. $50,000 was all that was appropriated.

Chalk one up for the Wilmington taxpayer in voting this money and the following up to see that what was promised by the Town Manager and the Board of Selectmen was done.

Holiday Greetings to Servicemen

Holiday messages will be transmitted by voice and teletype to many American servicemen abroad through the courtesy of Air Force Mars (Military Affiliate Radio System) from the Burlington Mall all day Saturday, November 13th during regular Mall business hours - 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.

Distance will not matter. Only those A.P.O.'s on active duty in combat zones, who cannot be reached directly by wire, will, unfortunately, miss out on this gigantic communications effort.

The Mars Program, an affiliate of the United States Air Force, extends a hearty invitation to all to come down to the Mall, and take advantage of this to boost the morale of a son, daughter, relative or friend away from home, with the best holiday greetings.

The eye has many accessories that provide protection and make the visual operations of the eye that much easier.

Among these, the eyebrow is an important organ. They provide protection from light, sweat, and possible blows. The eyelids aid sleep and protect against excessive light and foreign bodies. The glands in the lids moisten the surfaces of the eye.

Tears, too, fulfill an important function, keeping the eye moist and free from foreign bodies.

The Last Drug Store
Soda Fountain in Town

DORIS O'NEAL Gets the latest from Doris Allard, at the North Wilmington Pharmacy soda fountain.

The last Drug Store Soda Fountain in Wilmington is about to close. Tomorrow is the last day.

There are four drug stores in this town, but the North Wilmington Pharmacy is the only one to have continued until the present time with its soda fountain. All others have closed down - the last being the Wilmington Center Pharmacy.

Two young ladies - both married women, have presided over the soda fountain in the North Wilmington Pharmacy for some years, and both are, in fact institutions in that pharmacy.

Loretta Kalkanajian and Doris Allard are sometimes so busy talking that the customers have to wait. Not that the customers grumble, because the two ladies are just full of pleasant banter, and some of it more than pleasant. In a very nice way the ladies of the North Wilmington Pharmacy soda-fountain can make anyone the butt of a story or joke, as many have learned, including one of the priests of St. Thomas who stops in once a month or so for a chat, and sometimes has

Selling
(Your House)
The Fast
Easy Way

What is Over-Improving? Over-Improving is the process of upgrading a property by making additions or repairs or adding fancy luxury items until you have in more in your house than any of your neighbors. Let me give an example:

You buy a new house. You pay $30,000 which is about what the other houses in the neighborhood are selling for. You spend $10,000 on a two-car garage with electric doors, a fancy family room with a bar, and a screened in porch. You will never recover this $10,000 in the resale of your house. What you should have done was buy in an area where all the homes had these things already. Reliable real estate services are as handy as your telephone. At Forsyth and Company we concentrate on doing a good job for our customers, because if we do, business will take care of itself. Call about any real estate problem. If you are selling, find out about our file of buyers, advertising program, and MLS service. "Difficult problems solved immediately, the impossible takes a little longer."

NOSEY NANCY

Send your announcements to Nancy Box 206, Wilmington or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

SO...and we'll try again... Sorry about that last week. Girls...And they don't let me know when this Chick is going to make print either so she can't warn you when your notice won't make it...Ah well C'est la vie!

Ya ready?...This Gal's waitin' for that Music! Mary McNamara still has those small fry's glasses with brown rims and case she found in front of the Library last week so if it's your kid that's squinting this week...call her at 657-7541

The Horribles Parade was more than a success and Jo O'Neil should be well praised for her efforts. There must have been 400 kids and their witch mothers and dozens of donuts and coffee donated and it was a politician's dream says Selectman Jim Banda cause everybody got to talk to everybody...Congratulations to Jo!

Speaking of politicians...hear that Fred F.'s Birthday Party had in attendance all of the big wheels and it was a delight for those attending...and let me queue you into something...The rest of us were at the S of I Luau at the Elks Hall for the Luau...We had much fun...and plenty of room on that Dance Floor and that's the way we like it...Speaking of that unfortunate coincidence...we still feel that there ought to be a clearing house for social functions in this Town...Anybody want to volunteer, so that there won't be conflicts that are important last that of last week?

TONIGHT...Vicki Catalano is chairing a fashion show of Town and Country for the Sons of Italy Scholarship Fund at the American Legion Hall at 8 pm it says here on a piece of the paper tablecloth...and you gals are all invited to come see...

Speaking of fashions...understand that Big Joe cut a mean figure at Fred F.'s Do with red flannel pants, navy jacket and a blue and white check shirt...well, now there's only one other Boy in this Town that can carry those red pants off to our knowledge...and that means that Joe must be doing his shopping at Louis with Derek Right Boys...Go, Men, Go...You look just great!

That Soccer Team really moved out on that Game with Andover and they are a class above

Willie...So, you're great there, Fellas, and congratulations to Coaches Lentini and Peabody on letting those other linemen play... Now, that's the way a team should be!

And, Fred...How about that all Girl Football Team and a Scholarship deal where in Wakefield the Gals competed complete with shoulder pads and cleats, but instead of helmets wore hair ribbons on their pony tails? Let's go, there, Coach. If Wakefield can do it, Willie can...and that should make your Varsity move out...Come to think of it...it really irked this Gal at that age cause she could dropkick a ball good enough for scrimmage, but couldn't play Varsity cause she was a 'darned ole Girl'...so let's get with that Women's Lib there Fred and Larry...at WHS and you girls put the pressure on the Coach for a game...got it?

Glad that Wednesday style suited That was the idea...and the Sun was bright on that day...More of that please!

Don't look now gals, but Louie Hailson and Roger Beaupre are feuding. It seems they were in the same Tewksbury restaurant, one evening, and Louie, for a joke, dropped his tab on Roger's table.

Not to be outdone, Roger wouldn't give it back. Now Louie thinks Roger should have, and Roger thinks Louie shouldn't have, and Louie thinks...

Dave Walsh writes...Hi Nancy How's it going? Won't start school until Nov 29th for 6 weeks then on to Data Systems Technicians School. Doing fine. Really great out here. I love it. Navy's really great to me. Love, David Walsh...and think that you did make a wide choice Dave...and glad you are enjoying it. Really got a boot out of those rap sessions while you were home...Keep the Faith...know you are doing that well...particularly important in view of what's happened in the Clan recently...That's a Boy!

Dave's new address is BE5 E Division 3410, Mail Room SSC NTC, San Diego, California 92133 and we'll see that the TC is changed. Dave...Glad you're enjoying it! The Lady's Sodality, St Dorothy's, dine at the Red Tavern in Methuen last Tuesday we hear Father Leahy was a guest and the trip was made by bus...All had a good time and thanks, Gert you're one of the best! Youth Hockey Buffs Dance at the Moose Hall, North Reading on December 3...Happy hour 7 to 8 with dancing after...Call Jim Kidd 658-8186, or Dic Gunn 658-4178, or any coach for tickets...Got that one?

The friends of Mr and Mrs George Reynolds, who resided on Westdale Avenue, will be glad to know that they are now settled in their new home in Cape Coral, Florida!

One of the amazing men in Wilmington is Harold Foley, who owns the Shamrock at Wilmington Plaza...he is a past president of the Wilmington Rotary Club and for many years has been the editor of the Rotary Bulletin, a weekly newsletter, which is just about tops...He should have been a newspaper editor. Harold recently underwent an ulcer operation at the New England Hospital in Stoneham, and in spite of this he didn't miss a thing...everything kept on going and the Rotary Bulletin came out right on schedule...Amazing, that's the word!

Remember Dean Cushing? He was Town Manager of Wilmington about twenty years ago - a white haired man, even if he was only in his late twenties. Dean is now the Executive Vice President of the Boston Board of Trade.

This girl hears that Dean may show up for the party for Lt. George Cushing, tomorrow at the K of C Hall. It was Dean who appointed George a Lieutenant, in the Fire Department, twenty years ago.

Pat Brisbois of Church St brought her lovely Mom in who is visiting from England...Really am looking forward to that cup of tea, Girls...and this Chick doesn't indulge in Tea very often only for Special People...but will love that chat cause this Gal comes from a long line of ancient Englishmen!

Caught Mary McNamara breathless yesterday and where was she...out breaking off the ice for the ducks...Are you training them to fill in on the answering service, Mary, or just using the swimming pool for the winter!

Linda Crosson, daughter of M/M John C of Main St is now teaching in Lawrence...Lin is a WHS 1966 grad and grad from Lowell State in 1971...Nice going, Linda Grade 2 is it?

Richard Lyford is a student at Colgate and Bob is a student at Hamilton...WHS 1968 and 1971 respectively...so father and mother took the rest of the family and made a weekend of it visiting both lads since the schools are only 20 miles apart...

The friends of Mr and Mrs George Reynolds, who resided on Westdale Avenue, will be glad to know that they are now settled in their new home in Cape Coral, Florida!

a six ten can...Well now...was the gingerbread done. Fellas and congratulations on the clean-up and conservation movement... You know that is one of this Gal's pet 'things'!

Those Kids collected $176.87 for UNICEF on Halloween...what about that? Now, if your urchin didn't get his box back to headquarters yet...please take your box to church with you...Thanks! The Rev Willis had one in the newsletter this week that really is on the spot 'Christians are like pianos...grand, square, upright, and no good unless in tune.'

Our friend, Lennie Dobens, sent us a talk of his that he made at the Success Club recently...We didn't know he was a polished public speaker also...and we really got a boot out of it, Len...Told you you were our man or woman ahead of you that you ought to know. He has your eyes, your nose, your walk. He talks like you. And whether he hates or loves you, respects or despises you, depends on you. For you made him. He is YOU! How true that one is although sometimes someone and somehow...this Gal isn't always sure that that old one is ahead...like last week, she was at least 108...and holding!

Then thanks for permission to close with your statement...the Word for this Week, Folks is 'May the worst day you have in the future be as good as the best day you've had in the past!'

Thanks Len...Now, the Snow is really with us again...and this Gal is really happy that this Long Year is coming to an end...cause she is certain that the next one will be Warm and Snug...So, see ya next week, when she'll be 39 and holding!

Love ya!

Mrs James S Ventile

Jean Marie Haladay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Haladay of 157 Vernon Street, Wakefield, became the bride of James S. Ventile, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ventile of 61 Lowell St., on Sunday afternoon, October 3rd at 3:30. The ceremony was conducted by Father James Rogers at St. Joseph's Church in Wakefield. The church was beautifully decorated with arrangements of white carnations, touched with blue and white satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a full length gown of white organza with high neckline, bishop sleeves and a full chapel train, enhanced with chantilly lace and seed pearls. Her shoulder length veil fell from a matching crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Stephen Putnam of Wakefield, sister of the bride served as matron of honor in a gown of royal blue velvet with ivory bodice and embroidered yoke of fall colors. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a nosegay of blue carnations and star flowers matching the embroidery on her gown.

Mrs. Charles Mathus of Wakefield and Mrs. Alan Peterson, also of Wakefield, close friends of the bride and Mrs. William Stickney of Wilmington, sister of the groom served as bridesmaids. They wore royal blue velvet gowns styled like that worn by the matron of honor and carried nosegays matching the embroidery on their gowns.

Michele Stickney of Wilmington, neice of the groom acted as flower girl.

Thomas Ventile of Wilmington, brother of the groom served as best man while ushering duties were in charge of Jon Brown and Ralph Garland, friends of the groom, both of Wilmington and Paul Leverone of Reading, also a friend of the groom.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Town Lyne House where Patricia and Mary Ann Haladay, sisters of the bride were in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the new Mrs. Ventile chose an aqua crushed velvet pants suit with white satin blouse and white boots. She wore a corsage of white roses.

The bride is a 1967 graduate of Wakefield High School and is presently employed as a secretary at Lord Baltimore Press in Wakefield.

Mr. Ventile graduated from Wilmington High School with the class of 1966. He attended Lowell Tech and received an associate degree from Northern Essex in Engineering Science. He is now employed by New England Tel and Tel.

Following their wedding trip to Canada and Niagara Falls, the couple is now residing at 6 Elm Square, Wakefield.

Remember When...

A man known as "Old Razor Strap", a forbidding character due to a partially removed nose. He came to town as a wood chopper and for many years lived alone in a cabin off Butters Row. At one time he sold razor straps and at one house was attacked and bitten on the nose by a dog, hence his frightful appearance. He finally passed away at Tewksbury Hospital, following a suicide attempt.
